

T.V. Production (producers, writers, directors, sound engineers)

Please meet with your advisor at least once a semester so that you can plan your schedule together. It is very important to communicate with your advisor as we are continuously working on improving the program to meet industry standards.